Dear Mr. Willits:

Several weeks ago we sent you our files of reviews on all the books published by us in the series: Cornell Studies in Civil Liberty. The purpose of this was to aid the Foundation in preparing its defense of the charges made recently by the House Committee against various foundations.

The books on which we sent you our review files are as follows: Civil Rights in Immigration; Conscription of Conscience; The Federal Loyalty-Security Program; Federal Protection of Civil Rights; The House Committee on Un-American Activities; Loyalty and Legislative Action; Security, Loyalty, and Science; The States and Subversion; The Tenney Committee; and Un-American Activities in the State of Washington.

If these files of reviews are of no further use to you at this time we should appreciate it if you could ask that they be returned to us. If they are still being used, we have no objection to the further loan of them until their purpose has been fulfilled.

A note from you in regard to this matter would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mary Alice Boothroyd
