

NATIONAL RESEARCH COUNCIL

Established in 1916 by the National Academy of Sciences under its Congressional Charter and organized with the cooperation of the National Scientific and Technical Societies of the United States

B & 21st STREETS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

May 25, 1928

Mr. Laurence B. Dunham
Director, Bureau of Social Hygiene, Incorporated 61 Broadway
New York City

Dear Mr. Dunham:-

I acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your letter of May 24 informing me of the action taken by the Board of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, Incorporated, pledging an appropriation to the National Research Council for the further support, during a five-year period, of the work of its Committee for Research on Scientific Problems of Sex.

I wish to express the appreciation of the National Research Council of this action of the Bureau of Social Hygiene, Incorporated, and to assure you that we shall endeavor to make the most effective use possible of the funds available. We consider the work of this Committee one of the especially important undertakings of the Research Council.

Very sincerely yours,

Vernon Kellogg
Permanent Secretary

VK nw