The SSRC at its meeting in Carmel last week had an all-out hair-down discussion on future policy and future leadership. Needless to say, with such a democratic procedure, groups are forming. I suspect attempts will be made to draw us into it. I think we should stay discreetly out. You may be approached while I am away. Moe is on the committee of selection, and the whole committee is quite strong, so I think after a lot of healthy perturbations a wise choice will eventually be made.
