

WHEREAS, the five year period covered by the pledge of Mr. John D. Rockefeller for the continuation of the work of The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission expires December 31, 1914; and

WHEREAS, the Commission has notified its appointees that their appointments expire December 31, 1914; and

WHEREAS, the International Health Commission of The Rockefeller Foundation has been organized for the relief and control of hookworm disease and other controllable diseases in states and countries where conditions invite, and is financed by The Rockefeller Foundation, a permanent agency; and

WHEREAS, the work undertaken by The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission in the Southern states has not been completed,

Be it RESOLVED:

1. That on December 31, 1914, The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission be dissolved.

2. That the International Health Commission be requested to continue and assume full direction and control of all or any portion of the work of The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission in the Southern states on and after December 31, 1914, a detailed budget for which is shown in the accompanying exhibit.

3. That with the approval of Mr. Rockefeller the title to all records, equipment, and any other property whatsoever, together with the good-will of The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission, be vested in the International Health Commission on and after December 31, 1914.

4. That The Rockefeller Sanitary Commission agrees to have the work modified in its scope or organization in the discretion of the International Health Commission, and to provide such changes as may be permitted by the terms of Mr. Rockefeller's gift, and to sanction any additional changes which may now or hereafter be provided by the International Health Commission.

5. That this Commission, in behalf of the five hundred thousand people in the Southern states whose health has been improved through the work of this Commission during the past five years, and the twenty million people who have been educated concerning hookworm disease and measures for its relief and control, ~~expressed~~ in a letter to Mr. Rockefeller its genuine appreciation of this great benefaction.
